

Sydney Full Moon H3 Trash

Run#: 217

Hare: Bingo

Date: Sunday 3rd January 2010

Start: The Old Fitzroy Hotel - Woolloomooloo

On Inn: Same

The Run

Wet weather threatened all day, but a stoic effort was applied to the setting of another interesting tour around Kings Cross and Rushcutters Bay. Dundee undertook the Trail Master mantle and led the pack out from the Fitzroy. Dead Man Running and Glow Job arriving late, scooted after the Pack.

Dundee being a cunning Old Bastard encouraged the walkers, Slot Card and Heidi the Sausage up 'The Stairs' to an obvious on-back. The inconsistency of the map ensured some guessing and short-cutting.

As the Hare, I've no idea what transpired but I can guess that QR and Hannibal Lector managed to stay focused on trail rather than the red-light delights of the area while Blondie complained the expansion of the café society impeded her athletic prowess. Doc sniffed the air for a quick snack opportunity.

Hairy Twotter performed capably; avoiding an assortment of drunks, dealers, prostitutes and Eastern-Suburbs Princesses by short-cutting. Slotcard and Doc returned first to Bucket to find the Hare taking a quick nanna nap (well it was Sunday afternoon!).

The Bucket

Just in time for Bucket were SpringBox and Headlights. SpringBox was attired in full Hashing regalia and had good intentions of joining the Pack, but having arrived 2 seconds late, decided to sit out the run in the Front Bar. Headlights insisted that the run was advertised with a 6:30pm start; arriving at 5:15 she must have been planning on a few drinks or maybe she'd been caught in the.....

The beer was cold and the champers drinkable; a great leap forward from the previous run thanks QR! Young'ns Flicker and brother Marc amused themselves with a bit of Trainspotting. In the absence of the RA, Hannibal Lector conducted an informal Circle. Nominating Dundee to provide the run report, Hannibal was cut short by Headlights, who decided her absence on trail and confusion over start times qualified her to provide the most accurate report. Dundee summed-up, rating the Trail an 8.5/10.

Sydney Full Moon Trash: #217

On On

The Old Fitzroy had reserved us some space out on the Balcony where we tucked into Richard's prized Laskas and downed a few more bottles of wine and beer. There was a wedding upstairs; 2 blokes apparently. We all assumed the Fitzroy's Kings Cross proximity encouraged the jump into same-sex catering but turns out it was to be a mock wedding which was the result of some drunken mate-hugging.
